

Over Summer Break, Wisconsin Students Think Their Teacher is...

"Finding a second job."

- Andrew, 18

"Scrapbooking."

- Kali, 10

"Being a princess."

- Rory, 5

"Playing Pokemon Go!"

- Ramon, 8

"Getting married to me."

- Ashton, 6

"Sleeping."

- Arianna, 15

"Hmmm. That is a question I would like to know the answer to."

- Phong, 9

"Up to something."

- Jamal, 8

"Eating ice cream."

- Kelly, 5

"I see my teacher at summer school and he is teaching me multiplication."

- Ricky, 12

"Playing."

- Jude, 5

"Doing something smart. My teacher is very smart."

- Adam, 9

"Doing something with their kids and going on vacation. And, thinking about how to prepare for next year."

- Benjamin, 11

"Being lazy."

- Justice, 9 3/4

"Playing outside."

- Kayden, 3

"Probably buying stuff from the teacher store."

- Micah, 7

"Riding bikes."

- Clo, 8

"Playing softball and hanging out with their family."

- Tom, 9

"My teacher is a lifeguard at the pool we go to."

- TJ, 9

"Reading, she told us she was going to read every day and we should too."

- Maggie, 10

"Having fun."

- Jorge, 10

"Probably working on computers, building stuff, and reading books."

- Eleanor, 5

"Going to the beach."

- Luke, 5

"Teaching kids how to have fun, like going down slip and slides."

- Beau, 6

"Eating cake at a party."

- Nora, 5

"Taking pictures at weddings."

- Elaine, 6

"I think she waits there until we go back."

- LaShawn, 7

"Relaxing."

- Taitem, 7

"I think that teachers work to make a good school year and to improve our education. They also take time for themselves and spend time with their families."

- Danika, 10

"Sleeping in. Spending time with their family. Going shopping for school supplies."

- Ian, 10

