

School checklist items for April

Tasks For April

Complete assessments and close assessment windows by April 30 for the Recognized Schools program

Qualifications of the Recognized Schools program.

Complete gold or platinum Recognized Schools program application (by invitation)

Affirms the dedication and hard work schools and districts invest; Recognized Schools program applications and evidence are due April 30 and assessment windows must be closed.

Analyze system self-assessment results

Measures implementation progress, identifies areas of growth, and determines system fidelity. Celebrate successes!

Complete school improvement/action plan based on system self-assessment results and relevant data (student outcomes data, walkthrough data, etc.)

Provides direction and focus to move toward or sustain implementation.

Determine professional development needs for next year and allocate time and resources for completion

As part of the school improvement/action plan, systematically address gaps and opportunities for stakeholder professional development.

Share Tiered Fidelity Inventory (TFI—behavior) and/or Schoolwide Implementation Review (SIR—academics) results with staff

Provides understanding and evidence for school improvement/action planning and professional development. Celebrate successes!

Monitor universal/tier 1 practices and student outcomes

Links impact of adult practices to student outcomes.

Recurring Tasks For April

Schedule, plan, and facilitate monthly leadership meetings

Establishes team meeting best practices and foundations.

Share relevant data with staff

Provides understanding and evidence for school improvement/action planning and professional development. Celebrate successes!

Provide and assess ongoing professional development and coaching

Builds capacity and supports staff to implement evidence-based practices aligned to school goals. Be sure to assess professional development to ensure it is impacting outcomes.
