

6 PRACTICAL WAYS TO MAXIMIZE SYSTEM ASSESSMENTS

We know that self-assessment is critical to the successful implementation of an equitable, multi-level system of supports. How do Wisconsin schools make sure system assessments remain a priority year after year? We interviewed multiple schools and districts to discover their keys to successfully examining their systems.

This 2-part webinar series will briefly share the six key themes that emerged, as well as provide examples and resources for participants.

Audience

Assessment Coordinators, RtI or PBIS Coaches/Coordinators, or anyone at the district or school level engaged in implementing an equitable, multi-level system of supports
